

Two types of loading ports are available for needleless Luer fittings.

The air vent has a microbial filter.

Sealing the tubing creates a closed system.

The foil cover on the septum of the retrieval port can be removed easily for sample retrieval.

